BLACKSTONE

Alex B. Francis, who plays the "parson" in Reginald Barker's wonderful film portrayal, "Godless Men," has a role far more difficult than that of the usual motion picture parson who comes in to marry the lovers in the final scene. He has instead to deal with the soul of a great man in anguish. He has to hear from his lips a story which would condemn that man to eternal torment in the eyes of the ordinary preacher of fiction. But Samuel Poore, as the mission-

Like super-men the crew fight to keep the ship afloat—and win. But there comes another, and greater storm—this time a clash of human emotions, father pitted against son—with a girl as the prize. The ruthless bravery and sacrifice of the victory that befalls will engrave itself forever on your memory. Ask your friends, they know?

Secrets of the Movies Revealed

Q.—What motion picture actress name was recently dragged into the Stillman divorce case by an impostor?

A.—The Bessie Love recently mentioned in the Stillman divorce case as having tried to intrigue Fred Beauvais, the Indian guide for Stillman, into a compromising position, is not Bessie Love the well known picture actress. The woman decoy in this case posed as Bessie Love, the actress, when as a matter of fact she was in California at that time and has not been out of that state for a year. Of all the motion picture actresses none is more circumspect than Miss Love and never has a breath of scandal touched her. She lives at home with her parents in the Hollywood Apartments, Hollywood, Calif.

Q.—Who is he? He is six feet tall and was born in Baltimore, Md., and is a graduate of the Maryland Agricultural college. In his stage career he appeared in the Charles Frohman production "Israel," and also with Maxine Elliott in "The Chaperone." He was a co-star in the film serial, "The Hidden Hand" and later appeared with Anita Stewart and Blanche Sweet. He has light brown hair, blue eyes and weighs 185 pounds.

A.—His name is Mahlon Hamilton.

Q.—How old is Theda Bara?

A.—Theda, who has temporarily left the screen and is now in Europe, was born in Cincinnati, O., 31 years ago.

Q.—What motion picture actress made her first big success in the Universal production of "The Trolley of Hearts?"

A.—She is the well known favorite, Cleo Madison, who lived at 1525 N. Bronson, Los Angeles, Cal.

Has Charlie Chaplin ever appeared in the movies without his baggy trousers, his abortive mustache, his funny derby and his number 14 shoes? If you read this department tomorrow we will let you in on a secret about Charlie. The any parson is named, is not an ordinary man or preacher. With his great wisdom of life, and his ways with men, he guides the soul of "Black Paw" back to the home harbor, but the way is fraught with misgivings and many trials before it reaches its destination.

"Godless Men" is an entirely different story of the high seas. There has never been a picture containing the same unexpected happenings and absorbing plot, which will be recognized by motion picture fans when they see it. This extraordinary attraction will have its final showings today at the Blackstone theatre.

"The Good Bad Wife" which is scheduled for a two-day showing commencing tomorrow contains such unique and strikingly original plot that it would be an injustice to relate the scenes, but it may be said that the producers have succeeded in creating a brand new type of screen heroine that is always convincing in its fidelity to human composition, and always captivating in its surprising action and attitude. Hope Hampton, starring in "Love's Penalty" will be the feature attraction at the Blackstone Friday and Saturday. Another masterful production by James Oliver Curwood entitled "Kazan," a story of the great northwest, which was taken among the snowcapped mountains, will be the feature attraction at the Blackstone commencing Sunday for three days.

AUDITORIUM

After two days of strenuous work at the Auditorium, Tom Mix, his gun-lariat and his famous pinto "Tony" will end their stay in "Hands Off," today. The stamp of popularity has been placed on Mix's new picture. Pauline Curly, though only 19 years old, is entrusted with the role of a ranchman's daughter, whom Tom "falls" for on his arrival in town, others in the cast are Charles French, veteran character actor of the screen, Frank Clark and Virginia Warwick. "Playmates" is a very clever Century comedy which features Brownie, the wonder canine, an added attraction on the same bill. Tomorrow for two days, a red-blooded story of American youth is "Sherry," an Edgar Lewis super-production, based on the novel by George Barr McCutcheon. Pat O'Malley and Lillian Hall head an all star cast. A very funny Sunshine comedy, "His Meal Ticket," and Fox News are added features.

LASALLE

Coming,—Coming,—!

The advertisements in this paper today—and always,—are bids in a perpetual auction for your patronage.

In this auction, you have all advantage. Instead of bidding against other buyers for that which you want or need, the most reputable and reliable merchants and manufacturers of the neighborhood and nation are bidding against each other for the money you have to spend.

Instead of the "Going,—Going,—Gone" of the auctioneer, these advertisements are COMING, COMING, COMING,—with offers to you.

You cannot afford to miss the advertisements in this, or any other paper, today or any other day. Often, they are valuable; always, they are interesting. They indicate where you can buy to your best advantage; what you can buy for your greater comfort and convenience.

Read the advertisements. For they contain the news you REALLY need.

Read Before You Buy

The Housewife who recalls the old-time method of shopping, should be thankful for her newspaper that brings to her the daily news of modern markets.

In the advertising columns are spread out for your inspection the wares of every progressive merchant in town. Here, all four corners of the earth have something of interest to tell you. From your easy chair, you read the offerings, compare values, check up the statements from previous shopping experience and then make your selections which you can purchase with the least amount of inconvenience.

Imagine the difficulty of shopping without the aid of the advertising pages; walking from one store to another, asking a thousand questions, wasting time that could be spent to better advantage.

Shop after you read the advertisements.
